GignoSystem Japan Launch of two new games for “Tokusuru-Tsuika Games: Get More! Multiplying Games” Site; the EZweb official and BREW^(R) compatible full-blown game site

On Thursday, October 13, 2005, GignoSystem Japan, Inc. (HQ located in Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo, President & CEO: Keiko Iida) will simultaneously launch the delivery of two new games, “Scream from the Abyss” and “Heian Period Side Business”, on its EZweb official and BREW^(R) compatible original game site, “Tokusuru-Tsuika Games: Get More! Multiplying Games”.

Scream from the Abyss is a horror adventure game that takes place in the ocean, where the crew of the deep-diving research submarine “Hokuto” encounter bizarre creatures until their panic reaches the breaking point and “Heian Period Side Business” is a simulation RPG featuring a yin yang master (a practitioner of a form of Taoism that is based on the magic and astrology of yin and yang) in a state of amnesia who uses shikigami (the demon god or spirit a yin yang master uses in yin yang Tao) and achieves great success by receiving people’s requests.

The deep-diving research submarine “Hokuto”, acting under orders to carry out research on radioactive materials buried in the deep sea, encounters eerily deformed creatures and deformed “people” at an undersea site.

The crewmembers begin to lose their sanity one by one when faced with the tragedy hidden deep in the ocean abyss.

< Heian Period Side Business >

A yin yang master hero responds to the needs of the people and solves cases in the yin yang house through battle and the use of shikigami, in order to finally counter the great specter approaching to invade the Heian city.

There are various endings according to how the player behaves. Can the hero regain his memory and become a full-fledged yin yang master?
