GignoSystem Japan Launch of Chaku-Uta(R) (Realtone) Distribution Service matching the image of screensavers through EZweb official site 'The Photographic Marine Paradise'

On Wednesday, December 21, 2005, GignoSystem Japan, Inc. (HQ in Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo, President & CEO: Keiko Iida) launched a new service distributing music with the air of a tropical island paradise such as Bossa Nova, Latin house music, Brazilian songs, Okinawa Songs and other music as Chaku-Uta<sup>(R)</sup>(Realtone) to add more fun to the standby mode, through EZweb official screensaver site 'The Photographic Marine Paradise'.

'The Photographic Marine Paradise' is a much loved site where you can feel paradise, distributing fresh and tropical high quality photos of various genre and places such as dolphins, clown fishes and resort landscapes from around the world, and also, with a rich content of marine-related information such as moving images, Flash<sup>(R)</sup>, and columns. The newly launched service will offer Chaku-Uta(R) (Realtone) matching the image of the screensaver, and help add atmosphere through the synergy of image and sound.

The Chaku-Uta(R)(Realtone) to be distributed are 20 tunes including Sunny ( <sup>(P)</sup> IRMA Records Copyright Control ) and Ipanema Girl ( <sup>(P)</sup> IRMA Records Published by Music Market ) , and new tunes will be continually added from now on. From now on, we are going to distribute music that matches the image of the sea as Chaku-Uta(R)(Realtone) to "listen to", in addition to the current main lineup of contents to "watch" such as screensavers, moving images and Flash<sup>(R)</sup>.

We have already started the same service for NTT DoCoMo and Vodafone.
