(YOSHIKA's Profile)

Born on December 20th, 1983 in Yokohama-city Kanagawa-pref.
Her hobby is cooking.

She was in Canada during her elementary school student and in the US, during her high-school student, four years in total.

She started her job as a singer when she was a high school student and she sang jingles then, and "Jolie", cover version of Al Kooper's, that was the jingle for SONY's Cyber-shot in 2002 to 2003 drew response from people.

In November 2003, she released "STRAIGHT AHEAD" as an independent label. In 2005, she got contract with ATLANTIC JAPAN, which is certified label by the prestigious label, ATLANTIC, and debuted through the major label on May with the single "Call Me", which is written by BONNIE PINK. She has been energized since then.

* Currently she is on maternity leave and will resume her musical career in 2007.
