“TOKYO FM Full”, a Chakuuta furu (Realtone Full) (R) music distribution site, and “MUSIC VILLAGE”, a mobile music site, started exclusive distribution of Chakuuta Furu (R) and Chakuuta (R) of songs on the debut album of Binkou Izawa, the first artist from a demo tape audition system “Music in the Fast Lane (MFL)” from Wednesday, September 13th, 2006.

GignoSystem Japan Inc. (HQ: Chiyoda Ward, Tokyo, President and CEO: Keiko Iida) manages development and operation of both sites of TOKYO FM Broadcasting Co., Ltd (TOKYO FM, HQ: Chiyoda Ward, Tokyo, President and CEO: Michiomi Fukita).

MFL is a new style demo tape audition that was started on April 21st of this year. TOKYO FM and TOKYO FM MUSIC ENTERTAINMENT develop new artists in cooperation with famous labels and agencies. Now, their first artist, singer song-writer Binkou Izawa makes his debut with a mini album “Key of Life” from Daikisound-affiliated PICTUS label on Wednesday, September 20th.

Hideo Sano, who worked on producing the Southern All Stars and Masaharu Fukuyama, took charge to produce this mini album. Armed with “Voice”, his main sales point, Binkou Izawa aims to gain support from mainly female office worker fans in their 20s and 30s.

< Binkou Izawa Profile >

Born on July 7th.

After graduating from high school, he moved to Tokyo and stayed active through street and live house performances. He then went to the United States for further evolution. He attended music school in LA to study music theory and practical skills.

After returning to Japan, he started to play in a live house as a member of a band. However, he dissolved the band in search of musical freedom in 2001 and started his music activity as solo artist. He has released four access singles and one access full album. He expands activities; live performances and radio appearance in Sendai or in Osaka as well as in Tokyo, and choreographs for Ken Hirai and Kyogo Kawaguchi. He still actively performs in live houses, clubs, and cafes mainly in Tokyo.

He applied MFL to make his potential into a debut and won his laurels like a charm.
